INDEX

Compiled by Ann Barham

Author Index

ALLEN, R. Responding to youth crime in Norway: suggestions for England and Wales, 99–113

BEIJERSE, J. UIT see SWAANINGEN, R. VAN
BURNHAM, R. W. Review article: The promise and the perils of comparative criminology, 67–72

CLARK, B. M. and O'REILLY-FLEMING, T. Implementing the Young Offenders Act in Ontario: issues of principles, programmes and power, 114–26
CROFT, J. Reflections on criminal policy, 81–6

DRAKEFORD, M. The probation service, breach and the Criminal Justice Act, 291–303

FEEST, J. Institutional resistance against prisoners' rights, 127–35
FRIZZELL, E. W. The Scottish prison service: changing the culture, 203–14

GOTTFREDSON, S. D. and D. M. The long-term predictive utility of the base expectancy score, 276–90

HARPER, M. see RIEPLE, A.

LIGHT, R. Why support prisoners' family-tie groups?, 322–9

MADEN, T. Review article: Managing difficult prisoners, 171–5
MAXWELL, G. M. see MORRIS, A.
MITCHELL, P. see SMITH, D.
MORRIS, A., MAXWELL, G. M. and ROBERTSON, J. P. Giving victims a voice: a New Zealand experiment, 304–21
MOYLE, P. Privatisation of prisons in New South Wales and Queensland: a review of some key developments in Australia, 231–50
MURJI, K. Drug enforcement strategies, 215–30

O'REILLY-FLEMING, T. see CLARK, B. M.

PADFIELD, N. M. Parole and the life sentence prisoner, 87–98
PAYLOR, I. see SMITH, D.

QUINN, P. M. Adjudications in prison: custody, care and a little less justice?, 191–202

RIEPLE, A. and HARPER, M. Ex-offenders and enterprise, 271–5
ROBERTSON, J. P. see MORRIS, A.

SMITH, D., PAYLOR, I. and MITCHELL, P. Partnerships between the independent sector and the probation service, 25–39
SOOTHILL, K. and D. Prosecuting the victim? A study of the reporting of barristers' comments in rape cases, 12–24
SPENCER, J. Criminal justice expenditure: a global perspective, 1–11
SWAANINGEN, R. VAN and BEIJERSE, J. UIT. From punishment to diversion and back again: the debate on non-custodial sanctions and penal reform in the Netherlands, 136–56

TILLEY, N. Crime prevention and the Safer Cities story, 40–57

Subject Index

Appeal Court, prisoners' appeals to, 334
aquittals
  non-jury: increase in, 33
Association of Chief Police Officers
  ethics working party, 61
Australia
  prison privatisation, 231–50
barristers
  in rape cases: media reporting, 12–24
  satisfaction with, 334
behavioural prediction
  base expectancy score, 276–90
Belstead, Lord
  as Parole Board chairman, 59

© Basil Blackwell Ltd. 1993

INDEX

Compiled by Ann Barham

Author Index

ALLEN, R. Responding to youth crime in Norway: suggestions for England and Wales, 99–113

BEIJERSE, J. UIT see SWAANINGEN, R. VAN
BURNHAM, R. W. Review article: The promise and the perils of comparative criminology, 67–72

CLARK, B. M. and O'REILLY-FLEMING, T. Implementing the Young Offenders Act in Ontario: issues of principles, programmes and power, 114–26
CROFT, J. Reflections on criminal policy, 81–6

DRAKEFORD, M. The probation service, breach and the Criminal Justice Act, 291–303

FEEST, J. Institutional resistance against prisoners' rights, 127–35
FRIZZELL, E. W. The Scottish prison service: changing the culture, 203–14

GOTTFREDSON, S. D. and D. M. The long-term predictive utility of the base expectancy score, 276–90

HARPER, M. see RIEPLE, A.

LIGHT, R. Why support prisoners' family-tie groups?, 322–9

MADEN, T. Review article: Managing difficult prisoners, 171–5
MAXWELL, G. M. see MORRIS, A.
MITCHELL, P. see SMITH, D.
MORRIS, A., MAXWELL, G. M. and ROBERTSON, J. P. Giving victims a voice: a New Zealand experiment, 304–21
MOYLE, P. Privatisation of prisons in New South Wales and Queensland: a review of some key developments in Australia, 231–50
MURJI, K. Drug enforcement strategies, 215–30

O'REILLY-FLEMING, T. see CLARK, B. M.

PADFIELD, N. M. Parole and the life sentence prisoner, 87–98
PAYLOR, I. see SMITH, D.

QUINN, P. M. Adjudications in prison: custody, care and a little less justice?, 191–202

RIEPLE, A. and HARPER, M. Ex-offenders and enterprise, 271–5
ROBERTSON, J. P. see MORRIS, A.

SMITH, D., PAYLOR, I. and MITCHELL, P. Partnerships between the independent sector and the probation service, 25–39
SOOTHILL, K. and D. Prosecuting the victim? A study of the reporting of barristers' comments in rape cases, 12–24
SPENCER, J. Criminal justice expenditure: a global perspective, 1–11
SWAANINGEN, R. VAN and BEIJERSE, J. UIT. From punishment to diversion and back again: the debate on non-custodial sanctions and penal reform in the Netherlands, 136–56

TILLEY, N. Crime prevention and the Safer Cities story, 40–57

Subject Index

Appeal Court, prisoners' appeals to, 334
aquittals
  non-jury: increase in, 33
Association of Chief Police Officers
  ethics working party, 61
Australia
  prison privatisation, 231–50
barristers
  in rape cases: media reporting, 12–24
  satisfaction with, 334
behavioural prediction
  base expectancy score, 276–90
Belstead, Lord
  as Parole Board chairman, 59

© Basil Blackwell Ltd. 1993

Canada
  Young Offenders Act: implementation, 114–26
Chief Inspector of Constabulary appointment, 332
  Report (1992), 331
  retirement, 331
Chief Inspector of Prisons
  Report (1991–92), 168
  Strangeways report, 63
children
  of women prisoners, 335 see also young offenders compensation orders, 59 Condon, Paul
  as Metropolitan Police Commissioner, 158 Conrad, John P. obituary, 189–90
court service
  Report (1991–92), 66
courts
  Charter, 169
  compensation orders imposed by, 59 escort service for: private, 165, 252–3, 334 prisoners' complaints reviewed by: Germany, 127–35 see also Appeal Court; Crown courts; sentencing crime
  increase in, 337–8
  intelligence gathering service on, see National Criminal Intelligence Service prevention: council estates, 340; Safer Cities programme, 40–57 statistics, see criminal statistics victims of: compensation, 59, 157–8; decision-making by, 304–21; domestic violence, 254; in rape cases, 12–24 Criminal Injuries Compensation Board
  Report (1992), 157–8
criminal justice
  expenditure: global patterns, 1–11 international comparisons, 67–72 policy-making: principles underlying, 81–6 Criminal Justice Act (1991) breach of probation orders resulting from, 291–303 impact on probation service, 58–9 implications for parole of life prisoners, 87–98 Criminal Justice Bill, amendments to, 332–3 Criminal Justice Consultative Council discussion paper, 160
criminal justice system anti-racist training, 255 behavioural prediction in, 276–90 information digest on, 342 criminal records system, criticism of, 335 criminal statistics England and Wales (1992), 337–8 criminals, see offenders criminology, comparative, 67–72 Crown courts
  evaluation of, 334
  statistics (1991), 66
  survey, 159
Crown Prosecution Service
  Report (1991–92), 63–4
  standards and performance, 63–4 custody alternatives to: and rehabilitation, 136–56 see also imprisonment

domestic violence, see violence, domestic drug addiction
  in prisons, 162, 164, 340–1 statistics, 333
drugs
  Drugs Prevention Initiative, 157 market: law enforcement, 215–30 seizures, 60
drunkenness, convictions for, 60 education, see prisoners: education and training ethnic minorities in prison: services for, 335 treatment by criminal justice system: monitoring, 333 see also racialism

fines, unit, 332

Germany, prisoners' rights in, 127–35 Group Four
  court escort service, 165; prisoners escape from, 252–3, 334 prisons: the Wolds, 166, 253, 340–1

Her Majesty's Inspectorate of Constabulary, see Inspectorate of Constabulary Home Affairs Committee
  domestic violence report, 262–3, 338–9 legal aid report, 261–2 membership, 66
  police complaints procedure report: Home Office response to, 64–5 Home Office
  expenditure, 256–7
  Report (1993), 256–7
  Safer Cities programme, 40–57
  statistical bulletins, 59–60, 333, 337–8 Howard League imprisoned mothers report, 335 immigrants, detention of, 257 imprisonment decline, 258–9

  life, see life prisoners young offenders: Canada, 114–26 see also custody; prisoners; prisons; remand

© Basil Blackwell Ltd. 1993

Inspectorate of Constabulary lay inspectors, 253–4

Judicial Statistics (1991), 66 jury system, satisfaction with, 334 juvenile offenders, see young offenders legal aid costs, 65–6, 164–5, 261–2 eligibility for, 261

letters to the editors, 76–80, 189–90 Lewis, Derek
as chief executive of Prison Service Agency, 161 life prisoners
parole, 87–98, 157, 342–3
reconviction, 256
Lord Chancellors Department Court Service Annual Report (1991–92), 66
expenditure, 164–5

media
rape case reporting, 12–24 mentally disordered offenders, see offenders, mentally disordered Metropolitan Police Commissioner appointed, 158
new developments, 254
Morris, Trefor
as Chief Inspector of Constabulary, 332

NACRO
juvenile remand survey, 160 reports, 62–3, 255, 335, 342
National Association for the Care and Resettlement of Offenders, see NACRO National Audit Office inquiry into cost of police cells, 159–60 report on legal aid costs, 65–6 National Criminal Intelligence Service head's resignation, 158
new head appointed, 332
National Prison Survey (1991), 169–70
Netherlands, penal reform in, 136–56
New Zealand
victims of crime: decision-making by, 304–21 Norway
young offenders: persistent, 99–113 notifiable offences, see criminal statistics

obituary
John P. Conrad, 189–90 offenders behaviour: prediction, 276–90 criminal histories, 60–1 criminal records, 335 mentally disordered, 335; transfer to hospital, 256 persistent, see under young offenders rehabilitation: through diversion or punishment, 136–56 training: in small business management, 271–5 see also prisoners; suspects; young offenders and particular types of offence

Pacey, Albert
as NCIS head, 332
parole
life sentence prisoners, 87–98, 157, 342–3 Parole Board
chairman, 59
Report (1992), 342–3
reports: prisoners' access to, 157 Penal Affairs Consortium criminal records system criticised by, 335 privatisation opposed by, 165–6 penal policy, principles underlying, 81–6 penal reform
Netherlands, 136–56
persistent offenders, see young offenders, persistent police assaults on, 253
complaints against, 64–5, 339–40 disciplinary procedures, 61–2, 158 efficiency improvements, 253 equal opportunities, 254 ethical code, 61, 158–9
inspections, 253–4
interviews with suspects, 62, 255–6 in London, see Metropolitan Police malpractice, 159
national objectives, 159 public satisfaction with, 159
racialism, 254
rank and pay structure inquiry, 61, 253, 330–1 reform and reorganisation, 254–5, 330 training: national director, 254 police authorities changes proposed, 330
police cells
prisoners in, 167, 258; costs, 159–60, 332
Police Complaints Authority
Home Affairs Committee report on: Home Office response to, 64–5 Report (1992), 339–40
policing
drug market, 215–30
political parties
criminal and penal policies, 81–6 Prison Reform Trust
prison legislative reform proposals, 252 prisoners information pack, 255 private prisons criticised by, 253
reports, 255
prison service
accountability, 260

© Basil Blackwell Ltd. 1993

agency status, see Prison Service Agency code of standards, 161–2 goals and objectives, 260–1
Report (1991–92), 167–8
Prison Service Agency
chief executive, 161
corporate and business plans, 260–1 framework, 166–7, 259–60 objectives, 251–2
prisoners
appeals by, 334
court escort service for: private, 165, 252–3, 334 deportation, 343
difficult: management, 171–5 discharged: behaviour prediction, 276–90; unemployment and homelessness, 161 education and training, 252; in small business management, 271–5 employment, 167
escape, 166, 167, 334
ethnic minorities: services for, 335 families: support for, 322–9 female, see women prisoners foreign: in British jails, 255 health care, 253
legal advice, 334–5
letters: censorship, 334
national survey, 169–70 Ombudsman, 251
in police cells, 167, 258; costs, 159–60, 332 PRT information pack for, 255 on remand, 160; statistics, 258; young offenders, 160, 335, 342 rights: judicial review, 127–35
suicide, 62, 341–2
unconvicted, 62–3, 160
prisons
adjudication in, 127–35, 191–202 Boards of Visitors, 169, 191–202 conditions in: criticism of, 168, 336; prisoners' perception, 170 cultural changes: management and organisational implications, 203–14 disciplinary offences, 169 disturbances, 167
drugs in, 162, 164, 340–1 escape from, see prisoners: escape governors: adjudication by, 191–202
inspections, 63, 162–4, 168, 257, 336–7 legislative reform proposals, 252 new: location, 252
overcrowding, 167, 251–2 population: compared with general population, 170; forecasts, 259; statistics (1992), 167, 258–9 private: Blakenhurst, 165; The Wolds, 166, 253, 340–1 privatisation, 165–6, 251–2; Australia, 231–50; criticism of, 252–3; Strangeways, 63; see also Prison Service Agency regimes, 251
staff, 168
prisons, Australian privatisation, 231–50
prisons, British Acklington, 163
Ashwell, 257
Belmarsh, 336
Blakenhurst, 165
Blantyre House, 336–7
Blundeston, 167
Bristol, 336
Bullwood Hall, 164
Cardiff, 336
Cookham Wood, 257
Durham, 337
Featherstone, 257
Grendon, 168
Haslar, 257
Lewes, 163–4, 168
Long Lartin, 164
Maidstone, 257
Morton Hall, 162–3, 168
Spring Hill, 257
Strangeways, 63
Swansea, 336
Wellingborough, 162
Whatton, 337
Winson Green, 335
The Wolds, 166, 253, 340–1
Wymott, 162
prisons, German prisoners' rights, 127–35 prisons, Scottish cultural changes, 203–14 private prisons, see prisons, private probation orders breach, 291–303
as sentences, 58
probation service
national standards and 'statement of purpose', 58 partnership with independent sector, 25–39, 58–9 Public Accounts Committee police cell costs report, 332 punishment
changing attitudes to: Netherlands, 136–56 race, see ethnic minorities

racialism
in police force, 254
training to combat, 255 rape
media reporting: barristers' comments in, 12–24

© Basil Blackwell Ltd. 1993

reconviction
  life licensees, 256
remand
  statistics, 258
  young offenders, 160, 335, 342
Royal Commission on Criminal Justice research studies, 255–6, 333–4

Safer Cities programme, 40–57
Scotland
  prisons: cultural and organisational changes, 203–14
sentencing
  community sentences, 58 violent and sexual offenders, 59 young offenders, 252; Canada, 114–26; Norway, 99–113 sexual offenders
  sentencing, 59
Sheehy inquiry, 61, 253, 330–1
suicide
  in prisons, 341–2; prevention, 62 suspects
  legal advice, 331, 333–4
  police interviews, 62, 255–6

Tumim, Judge Stephen prison regime report, 251

unit fines, 332
United States
  drug enforcement, 215–30 urban areas
  crime prevention, 40–57 victims, see crime, victims of violence

  domestic, 262–3, 338–9; victims of, 254 violent offenders
  sentencing, 59
voluntary sector
  partnership with probation service, 25–39, 58–9

women
  in police, 254
  as victims: of rape, 12–24 women prisoners
  conditions, 164, 257, 337
  as mothers, 335
  statistics on, 62
Woodcock, Sir John
  retirement, 331

young offender institutions
  Bullwood Hall, 164
  Feltham, 63, 168, 341–2
  Glen Parva, 63
  Portland, 336
  Werrington, 168
young offenders
  Canadian legislation: implementation, 114–26 community projects, 255 custodial remand, 160, 335, 342 decline in, 255
  persistent: new court powers, 252; proposals for, 335; response to, 99–113
  police interviews, 256
  sentencing, 252; Canada, 114–26; Norway, 99–113
  suicide, 314–2
  victims' meetings with, 304–21

Book Review Index

BARANEK, P. M. see ERICSON, R. V.
BOTTOMLEY, K. and HAY, W. (eds) Special units for difficult prisoners. Hull, University of Hull Centre for Criminology and Criminal Justice (1991), 171–5

CHAN, J. B. L. see ERICSON, R. V.
CORBETT, C. see MAGUIRE, M.
CRAGG, S. see HARRISON, J.

DITCHFIELD, J. Control in prisons: a review of the literature. London, HMSO (1990), 171–5

ERICSON, R. V., BARANEK, P. M. and CHAN, J. B. L. Representing order: crime, law and justice in the news media. Buckingham, Open University Press (1991), 176–7

GOLDSMITH, A. J. (ed.) Complaints against the police: the trend to external review. London, Clarendon Press (1991), 184–6

HARRIS, R. Crime, criminal justice and the probation service. London, Tavistock/Routledge (1992), 73–4 HARRISON, J. and CRAGG, S. Police misconduct: legal remedies. London, Legal Action Group (1991), 184–6
HAY, W. see BOTTOMLEY, K.
HEIDENSOHN, F. Women in control? The role of women in law enforcement. Oxford, Clarendon Press (1992), 346–7 HEILAND, H.-G., SHELLEY, L. I. and KATOH, H. (eds) Crime and control in comparative perspective. Berlin, De Gruyter (1991), 67–72

© Basil Blackwell Ltd. 1993

HOGGARTH, E. A. Selection for community service orders. Aldershot, Avebury (1991), 344–6

KATOH, H. see HEILAND, H.-G.
KELLY, B. Children inside: rhetoric and practice in a locked institution. London, Routledge (1992), 178–9

LO, T. W. Corruption and politics in Hong Kong and China. Buckingham, Open University Press (1993), 350–1

McIVOR, G. Sentenced to serve. Aldershot, Avebury (1992), 344–6 McMAHON, M. W. The persistent prison? Rethinking decarceration and penal reform. Toronto, University of Toronto Press (1993), 182–3 MAGUIRE, M. and CORBETT, C. A study of the police complaints procedure. London, HMSO (1991), 184–6 MATHIESEN, T. Prison on trial: a critical assessment. London, Sage (1990), 76–80
MATTHEWS, R. and YOUNG, J. (eds) Issues in realist criminology. London, Sage (1992), 348–50 MATTHEWS, R., see also YOUNG, J.

PALMER, T. The re-emergence of correctional intervention. London, Sage (1992), 183–4
POLICE RESEARCH GROUP CRIME PREVENTION UNIT. Multiple victimisation: racial attacks on an East London estate. London, Home Office Police Department (1992), 264–5

REINER, R. The politics of the police (2nd edn). London, Harvester/Wheatsheaf (1992), 180–2

SHAW, R. (ed.) Prisoners' children: what are the issues? London, Routledge (1992), 179–80 SHELLEY, L. I. see HEILAND, H.-G.
STATHAM, R. and WHITEHEAD, P. (eds) Managing the probation service: issues for the 1990s. Harlow, Longman (1992), 265–8

WALMSLEY, R. Special security units. London, HMSO (1989), 171–5
WALMSLEY, R. (ed.) Managing difficult prisoners: the Parkhurst special unit. London, HMSO (1991), 171–5 WHITEHEAD, P. see STATHAM, R.

YOUNG, J. and MATTHEWS, R. (eds) Rethinking criminology: the realist debate. London, Sage (1992), 348–50 YOUNG, J., see also MATTHEWS, R.

© Basil Blackwell Ltd. 1993